THE edition of the GAZETTE is one of the largest weekly papers in the State. Having the matter published in the Daily to cull from in making it up, we are enabled to furnish a paper of surpassing excellence. We shall give in each number a correct review of the markets, and make the paper a complete reflex of County, State and general news.

THE NEWS.

The news from Knoxville is not of a very cheering nature. Small pox seems to be prevailing to an alarming extent among the soldiers, and rations are growing scarce.

Some guerrillas have been caught, dressed in Union uniforms. Such an example should be made of them as would put a stop to such business in future.

A delegation of wool-growers are at Washington, asking an increased tariff on foreign wool.

The East Virginia State Convention meets at Alexandria to-day to amend the State Constitution.

A formidable expedition has arrived at Jacksonia, Fla., precisely for what destination is not divulged.

More rebel deserters are reported taking the benefit of the Amnesty Proclamation.

The rebels at Charleston are occasionally obliged to admit that our bombardment does them some damage.

STATE NEWS.

Rev. Andrew E. Renedick of Delphi, Delavan Co., N. Y., has accepted a call from the Vestry of St. Lukes church, Racine to become their pastor.——An infant was found done up in a newspaper, dead, in a yard at Milwaukee, on Thursday. No clue has been obtained as yet to the mother.——Hon. J. L. Pickard, State Superintendent, delivered a lecture before Bryant, Stratton & Spencer's Commercial College, in Milwaukee, on Friday afternoon last.——The Milwaukee Chamber of Commerce is agitating the project of petitioning Congress to aid in building a canal around Niagara Falls, in order that the products of the Northwest may find an outlet to the ocean without passing through the Welland canal.——The Green Bay Advocate says the public schools of that place were never in better condition than at present. The weather at the Bay is mild to a point a little short of a thaw; they have two snow storms a day with snow already three or four feet deep. Lumbering is about to come to an end in that section of the State on account of the impossibility of working in such a depth of snow.——Nine large loads of leather manufactured at the Wisconsin Tannery at Two Rivers, have just been shipped from Ft. Howard for Chicago over the C. & N. W. Road. Messrs. Dousman & Elmore are preparing to build an immense warehouse at Green Bay the coming season. The full amount of the State tax of Green Bay—$3,735,61—has been paid into the State treasury. Enlisting is quite brisk in Brown county.

OUR MADISON CORRESPONDENCE more intimates that the Copperhead leaders in the Assembly are proving "too many," in their peculiar style of parliamentary legerdemain, for the Republican members. We hope our friends will soon learn their tactics, and not be caught napping many more times. "Divine Economy" Sanborn and George B. Smith are old stagers, entirely unscrupulous in principle whenever they can benefit party, and any measures they may propose or advocate deserves the closest scrutiny from the other side of the House.

WOOLEN FACTORY IN MILWAUKEE.—A project is now on foot to establish a large woolen factory in Milwaukee. That is a step in the right direction, as that city is sadly in need of more manufactories.

MILITARY APPOINTMENTS.—The following commissions have been issued by the Governor:

1st Serg't Henry R. Stetson as 1st Lieut. Co. E. 22d regiment, vice Kelsey resigned.

1st Serg't Stephen F. Ball as 2d Lieut. Co. G, 22d regiment, vice Booth, promoted.

Dr. Clarkson Miller as Surgeon 36th regiment.

FROM KENTUCKY.—Negro recruiting and impressing in the First and Second Districts is reported going forward. Adjutant General Thomas is said to have notified Gov. Bramlette that all loyal Kentuckians whose slaves are received or taken into the service of the United States, shall be compensated for every identified slave to the amount of the usual bounty paid to recruits.

The 4th, 8th, 14th, 16th, 18th and 23d Kentucky infantry, and 5th Kentucky cavalry, have re-enlisted. Over 30,000 veterans have already re-enlisted in the Army of the Cumberland alone. That army, though at last supplied with full rations, is reported still greatly in need of clothing and camp equipage.—Cor. New York Times.

—The constituents of Hon. Green Clay Smith, residing in Covington, Ken., held a meeting in that city on Tuesday evening last, when a series of strong resolutions were adopted indorsing his course in Congress.

EXEMPTING FARMERS.

From the Richmond Whig.

The question of subsistence, both for our people and our armies, should never be lost sight of, whatever may be the urgency of increasing the number of our men in the field. We are pleased to see that a bill has been introduced in the House by Mr. Smith, of North Carolina, proposing to revise the privilege of substitution as far as applicable to those who, previous to the 1st of January, 1861, were engaged in raising subsistence for man. Negroes left to themselves will not make their own support. They will become consumers, instead of producers, apart from greater injuries they would commit, from the utter demoralization that will ensue, especially where they are in large gangs, if relieved of the restraint of their managers. The country is now full of deserters and stragglers, hiding in our mountains and swamps, and in many instances confederating with negroes in marauding upon planters. Remove the planters, and the country will soon become an easy prey to demoralized soldiers and skulkers, and to negroes who will become rapidly rebarbarianized.

We would suggest, in extending this privilege to planters, that it be required of every one so exempted, that he shall deliver to the government, promptly and in good order, a certain proportion of the surplus of his crops. He will thus become more useful to the army than if he carried a musket in the ranks.

THE WORK TO BE PERFORMED.

From the Richmond Whig, Jan. 18.

The work we have at present to perform is almost immediately before us. A couple of months or so will witness the resumption of active military operations. To place the old men and boys in camp at this season, in the midst of the inclement winter, would prove destructive of the lives of perhaps half of them, and the other half would be of little or no effective service within the period required. They cannot supply the places of robust absentees, railroad and provost guards, &c., &c., who are already inured to camp and instructed in the art of arms. These are the true reserves which we are now to bring up—to bring up immediately—to meet the crisis which the opening of the near approaching spring campaign will inevitably present. And these, we are fully and firmly persuaded, will be enough.

We are not weak—not half so poor as to be "grinding our seed corn," or looking to the aged fathers of the land to step between us and subjugation. Our Congress would create a false impression upon the minds of our enemies, and convey to the world a most commiserable picture of poverty and wretchedness, if by their legislation they should say we now put forth our last resource—failing in this, we are lost and undone forever.

GOOD NEWS FROM THE REBEL ARMIES.

From the Richmond Whig, Jan. 26.

Lee's army, though not so large as it ought to be, is in fine plight. It is large enough, too, to send Meade on a begging tour for more men. Food is yet ample, clothing abundant, shoes plentiful enough, and the spirits of the men all that could be wished. Whoever has the blues, the hypo, the megrims or the hysterics, need only to go to Lee's army to be cured instantly. All who have been to that army agree that a visit there is an infallible remedy for despondency. Officers who come to Richmond make haste to get back to the Rapidan. They declare that the croaking and gloom of the city demoralize them.

Judging from what it has done of late, and is still doing, Longstreet's army is also in fine condition. Some of the men have suffered severely for the want of blankets and shoes, but the people and the Government have come to their relief and complaints have ceased. Any way, naked or not, Longstreet's men are plucky and stout enough to drive the enemy to within four miles of Knoxville, as the reader will see by referring to the column of telegrams.

SUBJECT FOR AN HISTORICAL PAINTING.

From the Richmond Whig, Jan. 27.

Enquirer man—not the Editor—he is "nameless here for evermore"—tearing up the Confederate Constitution for waste paper. Mr. Memminger picking up the pieces to print fifty cent Confederate notes on. Framers of the Confederate Constitution in the background, sitting on mourner's bench, wiping their weeping noses on illustrated cotton pocket handkerchiefs. Detailed editor of independent paper, dressed in uniform of artillery private of Confederate States, going out to be shot as a deserter for not spelling "liberty." Liberty, preceded by a band, playing "When the Cruel War is Over." "Unembarrassed Government," in the shape of a six-horse coach, with the drag-chain broke, being backed by a stubborn mule down a steep hill into the gulf of despotism. Mr. Benjamin looking out of the coach window and singing "Peace by the next mail from Europe." To be painted in oils (made out of lard, at $1 a pound,) and suspended in the Commissary Department.

THE REBEL CONGRESS—GREENBACKS PROSCRIBED.

From the Richmond Examiner, Jan. 25th.

The following bill, to be entitled "An act to prohibit dealing in the paper currency of the enemy," has passed both Houses of Congress. It originated in the House of Representatives, and was amended in the Senate, by the insertion of the words illaicived in the first section. The amendment will, of course, be concurred in by the House. The act will, doubtless, receive the approval of the President, and the country will then be relieved of the pernicious effects of a traffic which it is surprising any person professing to be identified with the South should ever have engaged in:

1. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact—That no broker, banker, or dealer in exchange, or persons concerned in trade as a merchant, or vender of merchandise of any description, or any other person, except within the lines of the enemy, shall buy, sell, take, circulate, or in any manner trade in paper currency of the United States; Provided, that the purchase of postage stamps shall not be considered a violation of this act.

2. That any person violating the provisions of this act shall be subject to indictment and prosecution in the Confederate Court holden for the district within which the offence was committed, and shall, upon conviction, forfeit the amount so bought, sold, circulated, or used, or a sum equal thereto; and shall be moreover subject to a fine of not more than twenty-thousand dollars, nor less than five hundred, and be imprisoned not less than three months, nor more than three years, at the discretion of said Court; and it shall be the duty of the judge of the several Confederate Courts to give this act specially in charge to the grand jury.

3. That this act shall not be construed to apply to any person acting in behalf of the Government of the Confederate States, by special authority from the President, or any of the heads of departments.

LOCAL MATTERS.

JANESVILLE SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.—The first meeting of this association will be held on Sunday evening, Feb. 14th, at the Baptist Church, at 7 o'clock. It is hoped there will be a full attendance, as the Churches represented in the "Union" will suspend their usual services to attend this meeting. The programme will consist of short speeches and other interesting and appropriate exercises.

By order of the Committee.

COMMON COUNCIL, FEB. 12TH.—At a regular meeting of the Common Council last evening, present, His Honor, the Mayor and Aldermen Burnham, Bates, Fredendall, McChesney, Patten, Strong, and Shelton.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Presentation of petitions, memorials and accounts being in order, a memorial was presented from J. J. R. Pease for the payment of $9,60 to treasurer for exchange.

Account of Holt, Bowen & Wilcox for $1.59 and of John I. Spafford for $3.75 were allowed.

The report of the finance committee was accepted and adopted, embracing the following accounts: J. Brooks, $2.75; W. B. Jones, $2.00; W. G. Wheelock, $1.42; S. Foord, Jr., $6.92; Moseley & Bro., $16.60; S. C. Burnham, $10.50; C. C. Phelps, $1.

Motion was carried that an order be drawn of $1.00 in favor of John Murphy for cleaning snow off bridge.

Moved and carried that an order be drawn in favor of S. V. Hanson of $9.25.

Moved and seconded that the report of the license committee in reference to the case of refunding money to Mrs. True, lie over.

Pat Kantillion was refunded $1.00 for dog tax wrongfully assessed.

Letter read from David Atwood, U. S. Assessor, in reference to stumping city orders was read, in which the opinion was given that bounty scrip of certain denominations are required to be stamped.

Moved that an appropriation of $20.00 be placed in hands of clerk for procuring stamps for stamping city bounty orders. Adopted 5 to 1.

Moved that an order of $15.00 be drawn in favor of Robt. Patten for defending suit against city.

An appropriation of $7.00 was made for payment of special police by a vote of 6 to 1.

Ald. Shelton made some pertinent remarks in reference to the situation the city is placed in regarding the fund for assisting the poor. He said it was now entirely in the hands of the county officers, who did not render that aid to indigent and needy persons which should be accorded. The city licensed the dram shops which made the paupers, and there should be some method devised for helping those made destitute and miserable by their traffic. If the county would give the city control of the license money it would see to it that the poor were well taken care of. He further said that there were frequent applications from needy persons to him for help which could not be rendered, except from private sources. These things ought not to be so.

Remarks bearing upon the subject were made by Ald. Burnham and Bates.

Bills were handed in by Ald. Burnham from T. F. Moody and Rogers & Hutchinson for furnishing street signs, but it being decided that no contract could be let without first advertising for bids, a motion was carried that the clerk proceed to advertise.

A report from the City Treasurer, showing the condition of the city finances on the 1st of February, 1864, was read and referred to the finance committee.

A motion was made that the application of F. McNaughton, E. Page and P. Murray, relative to cancelling certain tax certificates, be referred to the judiciary committee.

Upon motion the city Treasurer was authorized to notify all parties, so far as known to him, against whom tax deeds are liable to be procured for the tax 1861.

The Mayor was empowered to make adequate preparations for the reception of the 13th regiment, so far as warming rooms and making quarters comfortable is concerned.

The report of the Judicary Committee, to whom was referred the matter of difference between the city and county in regard to the account between the two authorities, not being in readiness, the Council adjourned to next Friday evening to hear the same.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Received of Asa Pierce three dollars and thirty-five cents, on account of Sanitary Commission, being money collected in School District No. 1, town of Union. J. M. BURGESS, P. M.

UP TO TIME.—We received to-day from Mr. Palmer, the proprietor of the Myers House, several fine bunches of lettuce, as fresh and crisp as though just from the ground. It is very evident that the Myers House under the management of Mr. P., will be a popular and prosperous hotel.

SPECIAL MEETING OF WATER WITCH.—There will be a special meeting of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2, this, Saturday, evening, at 7½ o'clock, for the transaction of important business.

By order of Foreman.

R. W. ROTHROCK, Clerk.

WHEN WILL MY DARLING BOY RETURN.—Our fellow citizen T. Martin Towne has just published a new piece of Music with the above title. It is a song and chorus, the words by Mrs. E. S. Kellogg of this city, and is dedicated to Miss Emma S. Towne. It is a charming piece and we advise all our musical friends to call at Wilson's and purchase it.

WASHINGTON ENGINE CO.—A special meeting of Washington Engine Co. No. 3, will be held in their hall on Monday evening, 15th inst., at 7½ o'clock. Let every member be present, as arrangements will be made to turn out and welcome our brave boys of the gallant 13th Wisconsin Regiment. Come, boys, and let us give them a reception they justly deserve.

M. H. CURTIS, Foreman.

WM. BOOTH, Secretary.

ANOTHER PROMOTION.—We are pleased to learn that Lieut. Henry C. Miles, whose promotion we announced a few days since, to the position of 1st Lieut. of Co. "E," of the 35th Regiment, has again been promoted to the Captaincy of Co. "F," of the same regiment. It will be recollected that the Captain was a private in the 51st Illinois, and by virtue of his own merits has attained his present rank. He will make a good officer, and one whom his men cannot fail of respecting.

DEAD.—Henry Forrester, who was injured by McHenry in a saloon at Depere two or three weeks ago, died from the effect of his wounds last week. McH. therefore stands charged with murder. He is said to be a very peaceable, unoffending man when sober. Whisky was at the bottom of it.—Green Bay Advocate.

Of course whisky was at the bottom of it, as it is at the bottom of nine tenths of all the misery, degredation and crime in the community, and yet we "licence" shops to murder, to make paupers and break hearts. This is a free and Christian country.

NEW BOOKS.

THE PERFECT GENTLEMAN; OR, ETIQUETTE AND ELOQUENCE. A book of information and instruction for those who desire to become brilliant or conspicuous in general society, or at parties, dinners, or popular gatherings, containing model speeches for all occasions, with directions how to deliver them. Five hundred toasts and sentiments for everybody, and their proper mode of introduction. How to use wine at table, with rules for judging the quality of wine, and rules for carving. Etiquette: or, proper behavior in company, with an American code of politeness for every occasion, and etiquette at Washington; Remarkable wit and conversation at table, etc., etc., to which are added the duties of chairmen of public meetings, and rules for the orderly conduct thereof, together with valuable hints and examples for drawing up preambles and resolutions. By a Gentleman. New York: Dick & Fitzgerald, Publishers, 18 Ann street.

Some one has said—"of all books give me a book with a reason." This volume would have suited him, in excess; for it presents for each of its directions, either in direct terms, or by implication, an evident reason. Unlike most works on etiquette, whole directions if followed literally, would make the neophyte a prig or a coxcomb, it shows why you should pursue one line of conduct and refrain from another, in your intercourse with civilized society, and that so clearly that every man with brains can comprehend and be convinced. Full and complete in all its details, covering the whole ground in the most ample manner, and written in a plain, unpretending, but entertaining style, it will occupy the position of the standard work on the subject. The price is $1.25 sent to any address.

DUDLEY CARLTON; OR, THE BROTHER'S SECRET, is the title of a new novel, by Miss M. E. Bradden. Dick & Fitzgerald, No. 18 Ann street, N. Y.

IN the Senate proceedings of Feb. 2d, we notice the following:

Mr. Wade presented a petition of citizens of Green county, Wisconsin, praying that the pay of the officers of the army may be reduced, and that of the privates increased; which was referred to the committee on Military Affairs and the Militia.

Mr. Wilson presented a petition of citizens of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, praying for the passage of a law prohibiting members of Congress or persons holding office under the General Government from acting as attooneys or counsellors, or taking fees in any case, whether civil or criminal, or from acting as attorneys for any claim against the United States; which was referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

—"I don't know," said Mrs. Partington as Ike came home from school and threw boots into one chair, and jacket into another, and his cap on the floor, saying that he didn't get the medal, "I don't see, dear, why you didn't get the medal, for a more meddlesome boy I never knew. But no matter, when the adversary comes around again you will get it."

—There are two things which you should not borrow—trouble and a newspaper.

—Women adorn themselves for their enemies even more than for their friends.

—Many who think themselves pillars of the church are only its sleepers.

—Silent gratitude was well exemplified by the little boy who, when asked whether he thanked the lady for the stick of candy she had given him, replied, "yes; but I didn't tell her so."

—A robber who was seized for stealing snuff out of a tobacconist's shop, by way of excusing himself, exclaimed that he was not aware of any law that forbade a man to take snuff!

—George Sala is described as an oblong person of gentlemanly ways, with a bulbous nose, delicately tinted with the blushes of good old wine.

—Our cities would have died out, rotted and exploded long ago, but that they are continually reinforced from the fields.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Tribune Special.—A delegation representing the wool-growing interest of Pennsylvania, Western Virginia, and the eastern part of Ohio is here for the purpose or consulting with the different committees of Congress, asking for an increased rate of duties on foreign wools, especially those of finer texture from the Cape of Good Hope and Australia. The duty on these wools at present is so very low it is impossible for American wool-growers to compete with it in the market. The tariff asked is 10 cts. per pound on these wools, which it is hoped will better protect the wool-growing interest of the West. The representations of the delegations have been favorably received thus far.

The Tribune's correspondent says: We learn from the front that our forces captured six or eight guerrillas about three miles from Warrenton, last night. They were dressed in our uniforms.

The Herald's Washington despatch reports General Meade in town and resumes command of the army to-day, (Saturday.) General Hatch is relieved from the command of the cavalry department at St. Louis, and ordered to report to Gen. Gilmore.

LAKE CITY, Fla., Feb. 8.—Eighteen vessels, gunboats and transports, have arrived at Jacksonia. It is presumed that a large force has landed and is advancing.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 8.—The enemy renewed their fire on the city last evening. A fifth monitor made its appearance today. The enemy is engaged in mounting several guns at Wagner bearing on the channel. A 200-pound shell exploded last week in a blacksmith shop, wounding six persons.

The Examiner contains Gen. Lee's report concerning the late Federal reconnoissance, which states that the Federals left 17 dead and 46 wounded in the rebels' hands. Their loss was 6 killed and 20 wounded, and a steamer and 20 men captured. One Federal captain and 39 privates were captured.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS TO GEN. SHERMAN!

Re-Organization in Tennessee!

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13th.—SENATE—The resolutions of thanks to General Sherman, officers and men passed.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the Senate resolutions equalizing the pay of soldiers, were taken up.

FROM MISSOURI.

St. Louis, Feb. 13th.—Mr. Johnson, of St Louis, chairman of the committee to investigate military affairs of this State, made a lengthy and very elaborate report to the lower house of the legislature yesterday.

FROM TENNESSEE.

St. Louis, Feb. 13th.—The Memphis Bulletin publishes a card, signed by 300 citizens of the city, addressed to the people of Tennessee, upon the subject of reorganization of the State and re-establishing relations with the national government. It recommends immediate and unconditional emancipation as the best and truest policy and only alternative, and calls upon all to support the same by meeting in Memphis on the 22d inst.

THE SIEGE OF CHARLESTON.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The steamer Fulton, from Port Royal the 9th and Charleston Bar the morning of the 10th, with the 67th Ohio regiment on board, arrived this morning.

Purser McAdams furnishes the following for the press:

A blockade-runner grounded during the fog of the 7th, and was destroyed by our fleet and batteries in Charliston harbor.

An expedition left Port Royal on the 5th, under Gen. Seymour, consisting of three brigades and one light battery, and landed at Jacksonville, Fla., on the morning of the 8th, without casualty. It is reported the expedition will push on to Tallahassa.

Gen. Gilmore and Staff sailed on the 8th for Port Royal, to join the expedition.

The British war steamer Petrel, with dispatches for one Benjamin, rebel Secretary of War, arrived off Charleston bar on the 5th, and requested permission to communicate with the British Consul at Savannah, which Admiral Dahlgren declined to grant, and the Petrel put to sea immediately.

The Savannah Republican gives a gloomy accounts of rebel affairs. It is stated that only one month's supply of subsistence is in the possession of the Commissary Department.

Admiral Dahlgren, with the Pawnee, Water Witch and Wachusett, has sailed for St. John's, Fla.

Three deserters from the 97th Pennsylvania regiment were to be shot on the 9th.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—It is authoritively announced that the telegraphic reports published in morning papers credited to the Cincinnati Gazette and to the effect that parties arriving at Nashville from Knoxville on the 10th inst., report that Cumberland Gap is cut off and that nearly all that part of East Tennessee in possession of the rebels, is not confirmed by any information in the possession of the Government. If such news had been received at Knoxville on the 9th or 10th it would certainly have been immediately communicated to the Government before this.

FROM CHATTANOOGA.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 12.—Latest advices from Chattanooga report that General Logan left Huntsville, Alabama, some days ago with the 15th army corps, to act in conjunction with Gen. Sherman.

The cavalry expedition under Grierson and Smith crossed the country from Corinth, moving southwardly.

It is understood that these columns are intended to act in conjunction—the one to attack, and the other to cut off Polk's retreat, and disperse the cavalry of Forrest, reported as scouring central and northern Mississippi.

There is no reason to doubt, though beyond this enterprise the combinations are merely conjectural, but that a great flank movement on Johnston's army is intended. Time will fully develope if we are mistaken in our calculations.

The army at Chattanooga is by this time in motion for Tunnel Hill and Dalton. Its movements may have been delayed by circumstances unknown to us, but it is under marching orders.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

THE NEWS.

The news from Knoxville is not of a very cheering nature. Small pox seems to be prevailing to an alarming extent among the soldiers, and rations are growing scarce.

Some guerrillas have been caught, dressed in Union uniforms. Such an example should be made of them as would put a stop to such business in future.

A delegation of wool-growers are at Washington, asking an increased tariff on foreign wool.

The East Virginia State Convention meets at Alexandria to-day to amend the State Constitution.

A formidable expedition has arrived at Jacksonia, Fla., precisely for what destination is not divulged.

More rebel deserters are reported taking the benefit of the Amnesty Proclamation.

The rebels at Charleston are occasionally obliged to admit that our bombardment does them some damage.

STATE NEWS.

Rev. Andrew E. Benedick of Delphi, Delavan Co., N. Y., has accepted a call from the Vestry of St. Lukes church, Racine to become their pastor.——An infant was found done up in a newspaper, dead, in a yard at Milwaukee, on Thursday. No clue has been obtained as yet to the mother.——Hon. J. L. Pickard, State Superintendent, delivered a lecture before Bryant, Stratton & Spencer's Commercial College, in Milwaukee, on Friday afternoon last.——The Milwaukee Chamber of Commerce is agitating the project of petitioning Congress to aid in building a canal around Niagara Falls, in order that the products of the Northwest may find an outlet to the ocean without passing through the Welland canal.——The Green Bay Advocate says the public schools of that place were never in better condition than at present. The weather at the Bay is mild to a point a little short of a thaw; they have two snow storms a day with snow already three or four feet deep. Lumbering is about to come to an end in that section of the State on account of the impossibility of working in such a depth of snow.——Nine large loads of leather manufactured at the Wisconsin Tannery at Two Rivers, have just been shipped from Ft. Howard for Chicago over the C. & N. W. Road. Messrs. Dousman & Elmore are preparing to build an immense warehouse at Green Bay the coming season. The full amount of the State tax of Green Bay—$3,735,61—has been paid into the State treasury. Enlisting is quite brisk in Brown county.

OUR MADISON CORRESPONDENCE more intimates that the Copperhead leaders in the Assembly are proving "too many," in their peculiar style of parliamentary legerdemain, for the Republican members. We hope our friends will soon learn their tactics, and not be caught napping many more times. "Divine Economy" Sanborn and George B. Smith are old stagers, entirely unscrupulous in principle whenever they can benefit party, and any measures they may propose or advocate deserves the closest scrutiny from the other side of the House.

WOOLEN FACTORY IN MILWAUKEE.—A project is now on foot to establish a large woolen factory in Milwaukee. That is a step in the right direction, as that city is sadly in need of more manufactories.

MILITARY APPOINTMENTS.—The following commissions have been issued by the Governor:

1st Serg't Henry R. Stetson as 1st Lieut. Co. E. 22d regiment, vice Kelsey resigned.

1st Serg't Stephen F. Ball as 2d Lieut. Co. G, 22d regiment, vice Booth, promoted.

Rev. G. S. Bradley as chaplain 22d reg., vice Pillsbury, resigned.

James M. Ball, M. D., as Assistant Surgeon 31st regiment.

1st Serg't Emory Wyman as 2d Lieut. Co. A, 19th regiment, vice Ellinwood promoted.

1st Lieut. and Adjutant Frank A. Haskell as Colonel of the 36th Regiment.

John A. Savage jr. as Lieut. Col. 36th regiment.

1st Lieut. Harry M. Brown as Major 36th regiment.

Private Charles L. Sholes as 2d Lieut. Co. A. 36th regiment.

Private Wm. H. Lamberton as 2d Lieut. Co. B, 36th regiment.

Private Robert Tomkins as 2d Lieut. Co. C, 36th regiment.

Private James B. Taylor as 2d Lieut. Co. D. 36th regiment.

Private Porter Jones as 2d Lieut. Co. E, 36th regiment.

Dr. Clarkson Miller as Surgeon 36th regiment.

Lieut. Col. John Mansfield as Colonel 2d regiment, vice Fairchild, promoted.

FROM KENTUCKY.—Negro recruiting and impressing in the First and Second Districts is reported going forward. Adjutant General Thomas is said to have notified Gov. Bramlette that all loyal Kentuckians whose slaves are received or taken into the service of the United States, shall be compensated for every identified slave to the amount of the usual bounty paid to recruits.

The 4th, 8th, 14th, 16th, 18th and 23d Kentucky infantry, and 5th Kentucky cavalry, have re-enlisted. Over 30,000 veterans have already re-enlisted in the Army of the Cumberland alone. That army, though at last supplied with full rations, is reported still greatly in need of clothing and camp equipage.—Cor. New York Times.

—The constituents of Hon. Green Clay Smith, residing in Covington, Ken., held a meeting in that city on Tuesday evening last, when a series of strong resolutions were adopted indorsing his course in Congress.

EXEMPTING FARMERS.

From the Richmond Whig.

The question of subsistence, both for our people and our armies, should never be lost sight of, whatever may be the urgency of increasing the number of our men in the field. We are pleased to see that a bill has been introduced in the House by Mr. Smith, of North Carolina, proposing to revise the privilege of substitution as far as applicable to those who, previous to the 1st of January, 1864, were engaged in raising subsistence for man. Negroes left to themselves will not make their own support. They will become consumers, instead of producers, apart from greater injuries they would commit, from the utter demoralization that will ensue, especially where they are in large gangs, if relieved of the restraint of their managers. The country is now full of deserters and stragglers, hiding in our mountains and swamps, and in many instances confederating with negroes in marauding upon planters. Remove the planters, and the country will soon become an easy prey to demoralized soldiers and skulkers, and to negroes who will become rapidly rebarbarianized.

We would suggest, in extending this privilege to planters, that it be required of every one so exempted, that he shall deliver to the government, promptly and in good order, a certain proportion of the surplus of his crops. He will thus become more useful to the army than if he carried a musket in the ranks.

THE WORK TO BE PERFORMED,

From the Richmond Whig, Jan. 18.

The work we have at present to perform is almost immediately before us. A couple of months or so will witness the resumption of active military operations. To place the old men and boys in camp at this season, in the midst of the inclement winter, would prove destructive of the lives of perhaps half of them, and the other half would be of little or no effective service within the period required. They cannot supply the places of robust absentees, railroad and provost guards, &c., &c., who are already inured to camp and instructed in the art of arms. These are the true reserves which we are now to bring up—to bring up immediately—to meet the crisis which the opening of the near approaching spring campaign will inevitably present. And these, we are fully and firmly persuaded, will be enough.

We are not weak—not half so poor as to be "grinding our seed corn," or looking to the aged fathers of the land to step between us and subjugation. Our Congress would create a false impression upon the minds of our enemies, and convey to the world a most commiserable picture of poverty and wretchedness, if by their legislation they should say we now put forth our last resource—failing in this, we are lost and undone forever.

GOOD NEWS FROM THE REBEL ARMIES.

From the Richmond Whig, Jan. 26.

Lee's army, though not so large as it ought to be, is in fine plight. It is large enough, too, to send Meade on a begging tour for more men. Food is yet ample, clothing abundant, shoes plentiful enough, and the spirits of the men all that could be wished. Whoever has the blues, the hypo, the megrims or the hysterics, need only to go to Lee's army to be cured instantly. All who have been to that army agree that a visit there is an infallible remedy for despondency. Officers who come to Richmond make haste to get back to the Rapidan. They declare that the croaking and gloom of the city demoralize them.

Judging from what it has done of late, and is still doing, Longstreet's army is also in fine condition. Some of the men have suffered severely for the want of blankets and shoes, but the people and the Government have come to their relief and complaints have ceased. Any way, naked or not, Longstreet's men are plucky and stout enough to drive the enemy to within four miles of Knoxville, as the reader will see by referring to the column of telegrams.

SUBJECT FOR AN HISTORICAL PAINTING.

From the Richmond Whig, Jan. 27.

Enquirer man—not the Editor—he is "nameless here for evermore"—tearing up the Confederate Constitution for waste paper. Mr. Memminger picking up the pieces to print fifty cent Confederate notes on. Framers of the Confederate Constitution in the background, sitting on mourner's bench, wiping their weeping noses on illustrated cotton pocket handkerchiefs. Detailed editor of independent paper, dressed in uniform of artillery private of Confederate States, going out to be shot as a deserter for not spelling "liberty," Libbyty, preceded by a band, playing "When the Cruel War is Over." "Unembarrassed Government," in the shape of a six-horse coach, with the drag-chain broke, being backed by a stubborn mule down a steep hill into the gulf of despotism. Mr. Benjamin looking out of the coach window and singing "Peace by the next mail from Europe." To be painted in oils (made out of lard, at $4 a pound,) and suspended in the Commissary Department.

THE REBEL CONGRESS—GREENBACKS PROSCRIBED.

From the Richmond Examiner, Jan. 25th.

The following bill, to be entitled "An act to prohibit dealing in the paper currency of the enemy," has passed both Houses of Congress. It originated in the House of Representatives, and was amended in the Senate, by the insertion of the words italicised in the first section. The amendment will, of course, be concurred in by the House. The act will, doubtless, receive the approval of the President, and the country will then be relieved of the pernicious effects of a traffic which it is surprising any person professing to be identified with the South should ever have engaged in:

1. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact—That no broker, banker, or dealer in exchange, or persons concerned in trade as a merchant, or vender of merchandise of any description, or any other person, except within the lines of the enemy, shall buy, sell, take, circulate, or in any manner trade in paper currency of the United States; Provided, that the purchase of postage stamps shall not be considered a violation of this act.

2. That any person violating the provisions of this act shall be subject to indictment and prosecution in the Confederate Court holden for the district within which the offence was committed, and shall, upon conviction, forfeit the amount so bought, sold, circulated, or used, or a sum equal thereto; and shall be moreover subject to a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars, nor less than five hundred, and be imprisoned not less than three months, nor more than three years, at the discretion of said Court; and it shall be the duty of the judge of the several Confederate Courts to give this act specially in charge to the grand jury.

3. That this act shall not be construed to apply to any person acting in behalf of the Government of the Confederate States, by special authority from the President, or any of the heads of departments.

LOCAL MATTERS.

THE Rev. Mr. Wolseley will officiate in Christ's Church, Sunday, February 14th, morning and afternoon.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Rev Mr. Nowell, Unitarian, of Madison, will preach in Lappin's Hall, in exchange will Rev. Mr. Holland, to-morrow. Service at 10½ A. M. and 2 P. M.

CAVALRY RECRUITS WANTED.—Sergeant W. J. Duffield, who has an office at the American House, calls for recruits for the Fourth Cavalry, which is now located at Baton Rouge, La. Here is a good opportunity for those who wish to enter the cavalry service.

JANESVILLE SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.—The first meeting of this association will be held on Sunday evening, Feb. 14th, at the Baptist Church, at 7 o'clock. It is hoped there will be a full attendance, as the Churches represented in the "Union" will suspend their usual services to attend this meeting. The programme will consist of short speeches and other interesting and appropriate exercises.

By order of the Committee.

COMMON COUNCIL, FEB. 12TH.—At a regular meeting of the Common Council last evening, present, His Honor, the Mayor and Aldermen Burnham, Bates, Fredendall, McChesney, Patten, Strong, and Shelton.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Presentation of petitions, memorials and accounts being in order, a memorial was presented from J. J. R. Pease for the payment of $9.00 to treasurer for exchange.

Account of Holt, Bowen & Wilcox for $1.50 and of John I. Spafford for $2.75 were allowed.

The report of the finance committee was accepted and adopted, embracing the following accounts: J. Brooks, $2.75; W. B. Jones, $2.00; W. G. Wheelock, $1.42; S. Foord, Jr., $6.92; Moseley & Bro., $16.60; S. C. Burnham, $10.50; C. C. Phelps, $1.

Motion was carried that an order be drawn of $1.00 in favor of John Murphy for cleaning snow off bridge.

Moved and carried that an order be drawn in favor of S. V. Hanson of $0.25.

Moved and seconded that the report of the license committee in reference to the case of refunding money to Mrs. True, lie over.

Pat Kantillion was refunded $1.00 for dog tax wrongfully assessed.

Letter read from David Atwood, U. S. Assessor, in reference to stamping city orders was read, in which the opinion was given that bounty scrip of certain denominations are required to be stamped.

Moved that an appropriation of $20.00 be placed in hands of clerk for procuring stamps for stamping city bounty orders. Adopted 5 to 1.

Moved that an order of $15.00 be drawn in favor of Robt. Patten for defending suit against city.

An appropriation of $7.00 was made for payment of special police by a vote of 6 to 1.

Ald. Shelton made some pertinent remarks in reference to the situation the city is placed in regarding the fund for assisting the poor. He said it was now entirely in the hands of the county officers, who did not render that aid to indigent and needy persons which should be accorded. The city licensed the dram shops which made the paupers, and there should be some method devised for helping those made destitute and miserable by their traffic. If the county would give the city control of the license money it would see to it that the poor were well taken care of. He further said that there were frequent applications from needy persons to him for help which could not be rendered, except from private sources. These things ought not to be so.

Remarks bearing upon the subject were made by Ald. Burnham and Bates.

Bids were handed in by Ald. Burnham from T. F. Moody and Rogers & Hutchinson for furnishing street signs, but it being decided that no contract could be let without first advertising for bids, a motion was carried that the clerk proceed to advertise.

A report from the City Treasurer, showing the condition of the city finances on the 1st of February, 1864, was read and referred to the finance committee,

A motion was made that the application of F. McNaughten, E. Page and P. Murray, relative to cancelling certain tax certificates, be referred to the judiciary committee.

Upon motion the city Treasurer was authorized to notify all parties, so far as known to him, against whom tax deeds are liable to be procured for the tax 1861,

The Mayor was empowered to make adequate preparations for the reception of the 13th regiment, so far as warming rooms and making quarters comfortable is concerned,

The report of the Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred the matter of difference between the city and county in regard to the account between the two authorities, not being in readiness, the Council adjourned to next Friday evening to hear the same.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Received of Asa Pierce three dollars and thirty-five cents, on account of Sanitary Commission, being money collected in School District No. 1, town of Union. J. M. BURGESS, P. M.

UP TO TIME.—We received to-day from Mr. Palmer, the proprietor of the Myers House, several fine bunches of lettuce, as fresh and crisp as though just from the ground. It is very evident that the Myers House under the management of Mr. P., will be a popular and prosperous hotel.

SPECIAL MEETING OF WATER WITCH.—There will be a special meeting of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2, this, Saturday, evening, at 7½ o'clock, for the transaction of important business.

By order of Foreman.

R. W. ROTHROCK, Clerk.

WHEN WILL MY DARLING BOY RETURN.—Our fellow citizen T. Martin Towne has just published a new piece of Music with the above title. It is a song and chorus, the words by Mrs. E. S. Kellogg of this city, and is dedicated to Miss Emma S. Towne. It is a charming piece and we advise all our musical friends to call at Wilson's and purchase it.

WASHINGTON ENGINE CO.—A special meeting of Washington Engine Co. No. 3, will be held in their hall on Monday evening, 15th inst., at 7½ o'clock. Let every member be present, as arrangements will be made to turn out and welcome our brave boys of the gallant 13th Wisconsin Regiment. Come, boys, and let us give them a reception they justly deserve.

M. H. CURTIS, Foreman.

WM. BOOTH, Secretary.

ANOTHER PROMOTION.—We are pleased to learn that Lieut. Henry C. Miles, whose promotion we announced a few days since, to the position of 1st Lieut. of Co. "E," of the 35th Regiment, has again been promoted to the Captaincy of Co. "F," of the same regiment. It will be recollected that the Captain was a private in the 51st Illinois, and by virtue of his own merits has attained his present rank. He will make a good officer, and one whom his men cannot fail of respecting.

DEAD.—Henry Forrester, who was injured by McHenry in a saloon at Depere two or three weeks ago, died from the effect of his wounds last week. McH. therefore stands charged with murder. He is said to be a very peaceable, unoffending man when sober. Whisky was at the bottom of it.—Green Bay Advocate.

Of course whisky was at the bottom of it, as it is at the bottom of nine tenths of all the misery, degredation and crime in the community, and yet we "licence" shops to murder, to make paupers and break hearts. This is a free and Christian country.

NEW BOOKS.

THE PERFECT GENTLEMAN; OR, ETIQUETTE AND ELOQUENCE. A book of information and instruction for those who desire to become brilliant or conspicuous in general society, or at parties, dinners, or popular gatherings, containing model speeches for all occasions, with directions how to deliver them. Five hundred toasts and sentiments for everybody, and their proper mode of introduction. How to use wine at table, with rules for judging the quality of wine, and rules for carving. Etiquette; or, proper behavior in company, with an American code of politeness for every occasion, and etiquette at Washington: Remarkable wit and conversation at table, etc., etc., to which are added the duties of chairmen of public meetings, and rules for the orderly conduct thereof, together with valuable hints and examples for drawing up preambles and resolutions. By a Gentleman. New York: Dick & Fitzgerald, Publishers, 18 Ann street.

Some one has said—"of all books give me a book with a reason." This volume would have suited him, in excess; for it presents for each of its directions, either in direct terms, or by implication, an evident reason. Unlike most works on etiquette, whole directions if followed literally, would make the neophyte a prig or a coxcomb, it shows why you should pursue one line of conduct and refrain from another, in your intercourse with civilized society, and that so clearly that every man with brains can comprehend and be convinced. Full and complete in all its details, covering the whole ground in the most ample manner, and written in a plain, unpretending, but entertaining style, it will occupy the position of the standard work on the subject. The price is $1.25 sent to any address.

DUDLEY CARLEON; OR, THE BROTHER'S SECRET, is the title of a new novel, by Miss M. E. Bradden. Dick & Fitzgerald, No. 18 Ann street, N. Y.

In the Senate proceedings of Feb. 2d, we notice the following:

Mr. Wade presented a petition of citizens of Green county, Wisconsin, praying that the pay of the officers of the army may be reduced, and that of the privates increased; which was referred to the committee on Military Affairs and the Militia.

Mr. Wilson presented a petition of citizens of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, praying for the passage of a law prohibiting members of Congress or persons holding office under the General Government from acting as attorneys or counsellors, or taking fees in any case, whether civil or criminal, or from acting as attorneys for any claim against the United States; which was referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

—"I don't know," said Mrs. Partington as Ike came home from school and threw boots into one chair, and jacket into another, and his cap on the floor, saying that he didn't get the medal, "I don't see, dear, why you didn't get the medal, for a more meddlesome boy I never knew. But no matter, when the adversary comes around again you will get it."

—There are two things which you should not borrow—trouble and a newspaper.

—Women adorn themselves for their enemies even more than for their friends.

—Many who think themselves pillars of the church are only its sleepers.

—Silent gratitude was well exemplified by the little boy who, when asked whether he thanked the lady for the stick of candy she had given him, replied, "yes; but I didn't tell her so."

—A robber who was seized for stealing snuff out of a tobacconist's shop, by way of excusing himself, exclaimed that he was not aware of any law that forbade a man to take snuff!

—George Sala is described as an oblong person of gentlemanly ways, with a bulbous nose, delicately tinted with the blushes of good old wine.

—Our cities would have died out, rotted and exploded long ago, but that they are continually reinforced from the fields.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Tribune Special.—A delegation representing the wool-growing interest of Pennsylvania, Western Virginia, and the eastern part of Ohio is here for the purpose or consulting with the different committees of Congress, asking for an increased rate of duties on foreign wools, especially those of finer texture from the Cape of Good Hope and Australia. The duty on these wools at present is so very low it is impossible for American wool-growers to compete with it in the market. The tariff asked is 10 cts. per pound on these wools, which it is hoped will better protect the wool-growing interest of the West. The representations of the delegations have been favorably received thus far.

The Tribune's correspondent says: We learn from the front that our forces captured six or eight guerrillas about three miles from Warrenton, last night. They were dressed in our uniforms.

The Herald's Washington despatch reports General Meade in town and resumes command of the army to-day, (Saturday.) General Hatch is relieved from the command of the cavalry department at St. Louis, and ordered to report to Gen. Gilmore.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 8.—The enemy renewed their fire on the city last evening. A fifth monitor made its appearance today. The enemy is engaged in mounting several guns at Wagner bearing on the channel. A 200-pound shell exploded last week in a blacksmith shop, wounding six persons.

The Examiner contains Gen. Lee's report concerning the late Federal reconnoissance, which states that the Federals left 17 dead and 46 wounded in the rebels' hands. Their loss was 6 killed and 20 wounded, and a steamer and 20 men captured. One Federal captain and 39 privates were captured.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS TO GEN. SHERMAN!

Re-Organization in Tennessee!

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13th.—SENATE.—The resolutions of thanks to General Sherman, officers and men passed.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the Senate resolutions equalizing the pay of soldiers, were taken up.

FROM MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 13th.—Mr. Johnson, of St Louis, chairman of the committee to investigate military affairs of this State, made a lengthy and very elaborate report to the lower house of the legislature yesterday.

FROM TENNESSEE.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 13th.—The Memphis Bulletin publishes a card, signed by 300 citizens of the city, addressed to the people of Tennessee, upon the subject of reorganization of the State and re-establishing relations with the national government. It recommends immediate and unconditional emancipation as the best and truest policy and only alternative, and calls upon all to support the same by meeting in Memphis on the 22d inst.

THE SIEGE OF CHARLESTON.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The steamer Fulton, from Port Royal the 9th and Charleston Bar the morning of the 10th, with the 67th Ohio regiment on board, arrived this morning.

Purser McAdams furnishes the following for the press:

A blockade-runner grounded during the fog of the 7th, and was destroyed by our fleet and batteries in Charliston harbor.

An expedition left Port Royal on the 5th, under Gen. Seymour, consisting of three brigades and one light battery, and landed at Jacksonville, Fla., on the morning of the 8th, without casualty. It is reported the expedition will push on to Tallahassa.

Gen. Gilmore and Staff sailed on the 8th for Port Royal, to join the expedition.

The British war steamer Petrel, with dispatches for one Benjamin, rebel Secretary of War, arrived off Charleston bar on the 5th, and requested permission to communicate with the British Consul at Savannah, which Admiral Dahlgren declined to grant, and the Petrel put to sea immediately.

The Savannah Republican gives a gloomy accounts of rebel affairs. It is stated that only one month's supply of subsistence is in the possession of the Commissary Department.

Admiral Dahlgren, with the Pawnee, Water Witch and Waqhusett, has sailed for St. John's, Fla.

Three deserters from the 97th Pennsylvania regiment were to be shot on the 9th.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—It is authoritively announced that the telegraphic reports published in morning papers credited to the Cincinnati Gazette and to the effect that parties arriving at Nashville from Knoxville on the 10th inst., report that Cumberland Gap is cut off and that nearly all that part of East Tennessee in possession of the rebels, is not confirmed by any information in the possession of the Government. If such news had been received at Knoxville on the 9th or 10th it would certainly have been immediately communicated to the Government before this.

FROM CHATTANOOGA.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 12.—Latest advices from Chattanooga report that General Logan left Huntsville, Alabama, some days ago with the 15th army corps, to act in conjunction with Gen. Sherman.

The cavalry expedition under Grierson and Smith crossed the country from Corinth, moving southwardly.

It is understood that these columns are intended to act in conjunction—the one to attack, and the other to cut off Polk's retreat, and disperse the cavalry of Forrest, reported as scouring central and northern Mississippi.

There is no reason to doubt, though beyond this enterprise the combinations are merely conjectural, but that a great flank movement on Johnston's army is intended. Time will fully develope if we are mistaken in our calculations.

The army at Chattanooga is by this time in motion for Tunnel Hill and Dalton. Its movements may have been delayed by circumstances unknown to us, but it is under marching orders.

Heeding Advice.

Maj. Gen. Butler, on taking charge of the Department of the Gulf, addressed the people of New Orleans as follows:

"If you desire to leave to your children the inheritance you received of your fathers—a stable constitutional government—if you desire that they should in the future be a portion of the greatest empire the sun ever shone upon, return to your allegiance. There is but one thing that stands in the way. There is but one thing that at this hour stands between you and the government, and that is slavery. The institution, cursed of God, which has taken its last refuge here, in His Providence will be rooted out as the tares from the wheat, although the wheat be torn up with it. I have given much thought to this subject. I came among you, by teachings, by habit of mind, by political position, by social affinity, inclined to sustain your domestic laws, if by any possibility they might be with safety to the Union. Months of experience and observation have forced the conviction that the existence of slavery is incompatible with the safety either of yourselves or of the Union."

For his earnest words of truth and soberness, his patriotic and steadfast devotion to his country, the second hero of New Orleans was set upon by the bull dogs of secession and treason,—by the arch-traitor he was anathematized and outlawed, placed under sentence of death, and published throughout the confederacy, in official bulletins, as one worthy of universal execration—as one who might legitimately fall by the hand of the midnight assassin. But the barking and baying of the rebel hounds did not disturb the old Bay State Democrat a particle. Regardless of all threats, Crockett-like, he went "ahead" in the discharge of his arduous duties, and did his work nobly and well. General Butler has proved himself a friend of the nation, and the nation will not forget its benefactors.

A few months only have passed away, since New Orleans was compelled to bow to the authority of the Federal Government; but in the mean time truth has been "marching on." The sterling advice of General Butler, unheeded at first, seems now to be duly appreciated. The people of the Crescent City, and indeed of the State of Louisiana, have learned wisdom from what they have suffered.—Whereas they were once blind, now they see. The Butler-Banks rule has done them good, and they are willing to have a little more of the same sort. The proclamation of General Banks very appropriately fixes the 22d day of February for the election of State officers, by the loyal citizens of Louisiana. The officers thus elected are to be duly installed on the 4th of March. The proclamation further sets forth, as follows: "In order that the organic law of the State may be made to conform to the will of the people, and harmonize with the spirit of the age, as well as to maintain and preserve the ancient landmarks of civil and religious liberty, an election of delegates to a convention for the revision of the constitution will be held on the first Monday of April, 1864."

Who would have thought, five years ago, that Louisiana would be working to-day on behalf of a free State organization? Had any one suggested such a thing, he would have been pronounced crazy. Verily, the world moves. We are glad to know that our "Southern brethren" are giving heed to good advice. Let the noble work of reconstruction, on an anti-slavery basis, go on.

The Speech of Mr. Milner Gibson on American Affairs at Ashton, England.

The speech of Mr. Milner Gibson, member of the British Parliament, to his constituents at Ashton, England, has been alluded to in the telegraphic summary of European news. The following are extracts from his speech as reported in the London News:

With regard to the American question the government officially is strictly neutral. I think generally that the policy of neutrality has been approved by the country. We have been urged to recognize the South—to take steps to bring about a cessation of the blockade, not recently, but formerly; and it is a circumstance which I cannot pass without observation, that the people of the United Kingdom whose interests would appear the most likely to be promoted by putting an end to the blockade, have most desired that our policy should be guided by justice and good feeling, with a fair allowance for the enormous difficulties which the government of the United States have had to encounter. When the Southern leaders took up arms—for, be it remembered they commenced this war—it was a war of aggression on their part. No man has alleged a grievance in the States except the growing sentiment of the North against the institution of slavery. Mr. Jefferson Davis himself has lauded the institutions of the country in reference to the past, but has only said that in the future he sees looming that growing sentiment which will endanger the slave institutions of the South, and which must continue to embitter the relations between the North and the South if it went on, and that therefore it was better to separate. I say, with regard to this American war, the South rebelled and raised this insurrection because they foresaw the emancipation of the slave. I assert that tariff questions had nothing on earth to do with the quarrel between the North and South. Perhaps emigration may in some measure account for it, for I find that large numbers of adventurers from every part of Europe are still crowding the shores of the United States. The present rebellion is being understood abroad in its true light, as a revolt against democracy, the rights of labor, and human nature; and the triumph of the government guarantees to immigration the great reward of peace, prosperity and freedom. I think the contest has arrived at a stage when we should frankly express our views and interchange our ideas.

Lieut. Mason of a Mississippi rebel regiment, who has been buying cotton for Northern speculators, was captured recently in Bolivar, County, Miss., by a Federal scouting party, and brought to Helena, where he remains a prisoner.

The bounty bill as passed by the Maryland State Senate gives a bounty of $300 to new volunteers and of $325 to veterans re-enlisting. Owners of slaves enlisting, on filing a valid deed of manumission, receive $400. A like sum is also given to the recruit in installments.

FROM MADISON.

Editorial Correspondence

FEBRUARY 11, 1864.

The following resolution, introduced by Mr. A. C. Barry on yesterday, was made the subject of a brief and pertinent speech this morning:

Resolved, That the Committee on State Affairs be, and they are hereby instructed to make inquiry and report to this house whether, in their opinion, any legislation is necessary to protect the rights of men volunteering into the service of the United States, from the depredations of rapacious sharpers and plunderers.

Mr. B. advocated the adoption of this resolution with considerable force and ability, his deep and sonorous voice ringing through the Hall like a trumpet. He said he had served for some time in the army and had witnessed, in high places and in low places, this inordinate greed for wealth and sudden riches; but the most wicked and devilish exhibition of this degrading characteristic was found in the cormorants who were preying on human life as brokers in filling quotas of the different towns. As much as he despised Jeff. Davis, he held him in high esteem when compared with a regular substitute broker. Senator Doolittle, he said, had widely circulated the story upon the stump last fall, and had just repeated it in Congress, that he (Barry) had so far modified his religious creed as to believe in a hell as a military necessity! It was true, he had so modified his faith, but he would still further amend by adding a deeper and a darker damnation for those who swindle the brave soldier out of his just dues, who freely bares his breast for the good of the Republic, and who is willing to welcome to his own heart the mortal stab aimed at the life of Liberty herself.

He then went on to detail the manner in which the sharpers swindled the soldier out of his bounty money, pocketing sometimes two and three hundred dollars per day, as the fruits of their unholy calling. He closed by giving it as his opinion that the whole drafting system was "an amazing blunder" on the part of the administration. [If the eloquent gentleman had been pleased to have pointed out how the Union armies in the field are to be strengthened and replenished without a draft, it would have gratified the side of the House with which he acts politically.] His resolution was adopted.

The Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company talk of building a road from Janesville through Platteville, in Grant County, to the Mississippi river, and the contemplated project seems to have stirred up some of the railroad men of Milwaukee, who prefer to see the road built through from Monroe west; consequently, there is a pretty strong lobby force here from the city of bricks to "head off Chicago." They will have their hands full to do it.

In the Senate to-day, a number of local bills were introduced that are of no general interest, and a number of bills to amend some chapter of the Revised Statutes. Unless the statutes are revised in a short time they will be so altered, amended and changed, that no one except a well-read lawyer can tell what the law really is upon the simplest question. As matters now stand, it is doubted if an intelligent industrious man can find out in five days, what the duties of a town clerk are. A revision and new compilation are greatly needed. The act to incorporate the State Agricultural College of Wisconsin was passed by the Senate.

In the Assembly a protracted debate took place in regard to the State Prison investigation, and a motion to overhaul the affairs of the Prison since organization, was voted down, and the House refused to concur with the Senate in its proposition for a new select committee of investigation. Judge Hodges, the late Commissioner, is here, and is understood to be anxious that the inquiry into the affairs of the prison, shall go on.

After the passage of a few bills allowing certain towns to raise bounties for volunteers, and some time spent in Committee of the Whole on the general file, the House adjourned.

The Adjutant General has just issued an order for the organization of the Thirty-Sixth Wisconsin Regiment. The field officers are as follows:

Colonel—Frank A. Haskell, of Madison.
Lieutenant Colonel—John A. Savage, Jr., of Milwaukee.
Major—Harvey M. Brown, of Columbus.
All good men and true. A. M. T.

FEBRUARY 12, 1864.

Senator Thorp introduced a resolution this morning instructing the Committee on State Affairs to inquire into the expediency and propriety of the State paying a bounty of $100 to such persons as may hereafter volunteer into the military service of the United States, and be credited to the State to fill the quota of the State under any and all future call or calls of the President of the United States for men; and that said Committee report a bill for that purpose as soon as convenient.

A resolution was introduced by Senator Wescott, and adopted by the Senate, instructing the Committee on Militia to inquire into the expediency and practicability of procuring a change or modification of the law, or order, allowing volunteers to be credited to any town, city or village in this State, and to report by bill or memorial, or otherwise.

Several bills were introduced, and among others one by Mr. Wescott, entitled "A bill for the encouragement of the woolgrowing interest of this State," which seems, from its title, to be a bill of some importance. The following bills were passed:

To incorporate the Bohemian Relief Society of Milwaukee city. To amend an act incorporating the Milwaukee Cemetery Association. In relation to Protestant Episcopal Churches in Wisconsin. To incorporate the Watertown Gymnastic Association. For the preservation of fish in Devil's Lake, Sauk county. To amend an act incorporating the village of Two Rivers, Manitowoc county. To amend acts relating to "county and county officers," providing for county boards choosing their own chairman at each annual meeting.—To enable the city of Fond du Lac to settle with its bondholders. To amend chapter 222, general laws of 1860, relating to school, university, swamp, and overflowed lands, &c., and providing for their adequate protection.

The State Prison investigation matter was postponed until Tuesday next.

Senator Wheeler, of Fond du Lac, is at home sick with the small pox.

In the Assembly, Mr. Sanborn introduced a resolution directing the Secretary of State to furnish a detailed statement of the number, names and pay of all the clerks and employees about the Capitol and connected with the several State offices.

Mr. Barron could not see the necessity of putting the Secretary of State to the labor involved in this resolution, inasmuch as the information was contained in his annual report. Mr. Sanborn said that some clerks were paid more and others less than they earned, and he wanted the people to have the facts before them. Mr. Barron thought it a very small effort to make political capital. He said he supposed the State officers knew what the were about and could regulate the affairs of their offices without legislative interference. After some further remarks by Mr. Sanborn, the resolution was adopted.

A resolution was adopted, ordering of the State Printer 2,500 copies of the law authorizing towns, cities and villages to raise money by tax for the payment of bounties to volunteers. [The democrats are entitled to the credit of a little sharp practice on this occasion. The resolution as originally introduced, provided for the purchase of so many copies of the State Journal which had the law already in type and could have furnished the needed copies in three or four hours; but the copperheads are not especially fond of circulating that paper, so they went in to kill the measure so far as giving any aid or comfort to that sheet is concerned. Some of the Republicans did not see what they were driving at until it was too late. Sanborn Jones & Co. managed the thing very adroitly, and are entitled to some credit. The State printer can thank them for this job.]

The committee on privileges and elections reported in regard to the contested seat in Waukesha county, that it appeared that Mr. Costigan had 43 majority of all the votes cast, and the only question in the case was as to the legality of an extra poll in the town of Menomonee. While there were some informalities in connection with that extra poll, it appeared that the election held there was legal and there was no evidence of fraud in the voting or proceedings there, and hence there was not sufficient reason to oust Mr. Costigan, but as Mr. Cady appeared to have had reasonable ground for contesting the seat, the majority of the committee recommended that he be allowed per diem, mileage and reasonable expenses.

One of the most remarkable blunders of the session was committed by the House this morning in indefinitely postponing, by a vote of 52 to 23, the Senate resolution, amending the constitution so as to increase the number of Judges on the Supreme Bench to five. Mr. Sanborn objected to amending the constitution by piece meal, when the whole of it needed revision by a convention. Mr. George B. Smith said the present Judges were highly respectable gentlemen and good lawyers, and were abundantly able and willing to transact the business of the Court, without adding to their number. The statement of Mr. Smith is incorrect, and in support of the contrary assertion the fact might be cited that it has sometimes taken a twelvemonth to get the opinion of that court after the arguments had been closed, and the reason assigned for such delay, was, that the court was so crowded with business that it was impossible to dispatch it more promptly. I hope the matter will be reconsidered.

Mr. Webb's bill providing for the revision and compilation of the laws of Wisconsin, was defeated on its final passage by the decisive vote of 49 to 30. Last session a similar bill was lost by only one vote. A. M. T.

Changes Wrought by the War.

In "Cudjo's Cave," a war novel by J. T. Trowbridge, well known as a contributor to the Atlantic Monthly, we find the following beautiful paragraph:

"How many a beloved good-for-nothing has gone from our streets and firesides, to re-appear afar off in a vision of glory! The school-fellows know not their comrade; the mother knows not her own son. The stripling whose out-going and in-coming were so familliar to us—impulsive, fun-loving, a little vain, a little selfish, apt to be cross when the supper was not ready, apt to come late and make you cross when the supper was ready and waiting—who ever guessed what nobleness was in him! His country called, and he rose up a patriot. The fatigue of marches, the hardships of camp and bivouac, the hard fare, the injustice that must be submitted to, all the terrible trials of the body's strength and the soul's patient endurance, these he bore with the superb buoyancy of spirit which denotes the hero. Who was it that caught up the colors and rushed forward with them into the thick of the battle, after the fifth man who attempted it had been shot down? Yes, the very same. He fell, covered with wounds and glory.

The rusty and seemingly useless instrument we saw hang so long idle on the walls of society, none dreamed to be a trumpet of sonorous note until the soul came and blew a blast. And what has become of that white-gloved, perfumed and handsome cousin of yours, devoted to his pleasures, weary even of those—to whom life, with all its luxuries, had become a bore? He fell in the trenches at Wagner. He had distinguished himself for his daring, his hardihood, his fiery love of liberty. When the nations alarm beat, his manhood then stood erect; all his past frivolities were no more than dust in the mane of this young lion. The war has proved useful if only in this, that is has developed the latent heroism in our young men, and taught us what is in humanity, in our fellows, in ourselves. Because it has called into action all this generosity and courage, if for no other cause, let us forgive its cruelty, though the chair of the beloved one be vacant, the bed unslept in, and the hand cold that penned the letters in that sacred drawer, which cannot even now be opened without grief."

Heeding Advice.

Maj. Gen. Butler, on taking charge of the Department of the Gulf, addressed the people of New Orleans as follows:

"If you desire to leave to your children the inheritance you received of your fathers—a stable constitutional government—if you desire that they should, in the future be a portion of the greatest empire the sun ever shone upon, return to your allegiance. There is but one thing that stands in the way. There is but one thing that at this hour stands between you and the government, and that is slavery. The institution, cursed of God, which has taken its last refuge here, in His Providence will be rooted out as the tares from the wheat, although the wheat be torn up with it. I have given much thought to this subject. I came among you, by teachings, by habit of mind, by political position, by social affinity, inclined to sustain your domestic laws, if by any possibility they might be with safety to the Union. Months of experience and observation have forced the conviction that the existence of slavery is incompatible with the safety either of yourselves or of the Union."

For his earnest words of truth and soberness, his patriotic and steadfast devotion to his country, the second hero of New Orleans was set upon by the bull dogs of secession and treason,—by the arch-traitor he was anathematized and outlawed, placed under sentence of death, and published throughout the confederacy, in official bulletins, as one worthy of universal execration—as one who might legitimately fall by the hand of the midnight assassin. But the barking and baying of the rebel hounds did not disturb the old Bay State Democrat a particle. Regardless of all threats, Crockett-like, he went "ahead" in the discharge of his arduous duties, and did his work nobly and well. General Butler has proved himself a friend of the nation, and the nation will not forget its benefactors.

A few months only have passed away, since New Orleans was compelled to bow to the authority of the Federal Government; but in the mean time truth has been "marching on." The sterling advice of General Butler, unheeded at first, seems now to be duly appreciated. The people of the Crescent City, and indeed of the State of Louisiana, have learned wisdom from what they have suffered.—Whereas they were once blind, now they see. The Butler-Banks rule has done them good, and they are willing to have a little more of the same sort. The proclamation of General Banks very appropriately fixes the 22d day of February for the election of State officers, by the loyal citizens of Louisiana. The officers thus elected are to be duly installed on the 4th of March. The proclamation further sets forth, as follows: "In order that the organic law of the State may be made to conform to the will of the people, and harmonize with the spirit of the age, as well as to maintain and preserve the ancient landmarks of civil and religious liberty, an election of delegates to a convention for the revision of the constitution will be held on the first Monday of April, 1864."

Who would have thought, five years ago, that Louisiana would be working to-day on behalf of a free State organization? Had any one suggested such a thing, he would have been pronounced crazy. Verily, the world moves. We are glad to know that our "Southern brethren" are giving heed to good advice. Let the noble work of reconstruction, on an anti-slavery basis, go on.

The Speech of Mr. Milner Gibson on American Affairs at Ashton, England.

The speech of Mr. Milner Gibson, member of the British Parliament, to his constituents at Ashton, England, has been alluded to in the telegraphic summary of European news. The following are extracts from his speech as reported in the London News:

With regard to the American question the government officially is strictly neutral. I think generally that the policy of neutrality has been approved by the country. We have been urged to recognize the South—to take steps to bring about a cessation of the blockade, not recently, but formerly; and it is a circumstance which I cannot pass without observation, that the people of the United Kingdom whose interests would appear the most likely to be prompted by putting an end to the blockade, have most desired that our policy should be guided by justice and good feeling, with a fair allowance for the enormous difficulties which the government of the United States have had to encounter. When the Southern leaders took up arms—for, be it remembered they commenced this war—it was a war of aggression on their part. No man has alleged a grievance in the States except the growing sentiment of the North against the institution of slavery. Mr. Jefferson Davis himself has lauded the institutions of the country in reference to the past, but has only said that in the future he sees looming that growing sentiment which will endanger the slave institutions of the South, and which must continue to embitter the relations between the North and the South if it went on, and that therefore it was better to separate. I say, with regard to this American war, the South rebelled and raised this insurrection because they foresaw the emancipation of the slave. I assert that tariff questions had nothing on earth to do with the quarrel between the North and South. Perhaps emigration may in some measure account for it, for I find that large numbers of adventurers from every part of Europe are still crowding the shores of the United States. The present rebellion is being understood abroad in its true light, as a revolt against democracy, the rights of labor, and human nature; and the triumph of the government guarantees to immigration the great reward of peace, prosperity and freedom. I think the contest has arrived at a stage when we should frankly express our views and interchange our ideas.

Lieut. Mason of a Mississippi rebel regiment, who has been buying cotton for Northern speculators, was captured recently in Bolivar, County, Miss. by a Federal scouting party, and brought to Helena, where he remains a prisoner.

The bounty bill as passed by the Maryland State Senate gives a bounty of $300 to new volunteers and of $325 to veterans re-enlisting. Owners of slaves enlisting, on filing a valid deed of manumission, receive $400. A like sum is also given to the recruit in installments.

FROM MADISON.

Editorial Correspondence.

MADISON, FEBRUARY 11, 1864.

The following resolution, introduced by Mr. A. C. Barry on yesterday, was made the subject of a brief and pertinent speech this morning:

Resolved, That the Committee on State Affairs be, and they are hereby instructed to make inquiry and report to this house whether, in their opinion, any legislation is necessary to protect the rights of men volunteering into the service of the United States, from the depredations of rapacious sharpers and plunderers.

Mr. B. advocated the adoption of this resolution with considerable force and ability, his deep and sonorous voice ringing through the Hall like a trumpet. He said he had served for some time in the army and had witnessed, in high places and in low places, this inordinate greed for wealth and sudden riches; but the most wicked and devilish exhibition of this degrading characteristic was found in the cormorants who were preying on human life as brokers in filling quotas of the different towns. As much as he despised Jeff. Davis, he held him in high esteem when compared with a regular substitute broker. Senator Doolittle, he said, had widely circulated the story upon the stump last fall, and had just repeated it in Congress, that he (Barry) had so far modified his religious creed as to believe in a hell as a military necessity! It was true, he had so modified his faith, but he would still further amend by adding a deeper and a darker damnation for those who swindle the brave soldier out of his just dues, who freely bares his breast for the good of the Republic, and who is willing to welcome to his own heart the mortal stab aimed at the life of Liberty herself.

He then went on to detail the manner in which the sharpers swindled the soldier out of his bounty money, pocketing sometimes two and three hundred dollars per day, as the fruits of their unholy calling. He closed by giving it as his opinion that the whole drafting system was "an amazing blunder" on the part of the administration. (If the eloquent gentleman had been pleased to have pointed out how the Union armies in the field are to be strengthened and replenished without a draft, it would have gratified the side of the House with which he acts politically.) His resolution was adopted.

The Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company talk of building a road from Janesville through Platteville, in Grant County, to the Mississippi river, and the contemplated project seems to have stirred up some of the railroad men of Milwaukee, who prefer to see the road built through from Monroe west; consequently, there is a pretty strong lobby force here from the city of bricks to "head off Chicago." They will have their hands full to do it.

In the Senate to-day, a number of local bills were introduced that are of no general interest, and a number of bills to amend some chapter of the Revised Statutes. Unless the statutes are revised in a short time they will be so altered, amended and changed, that no one except a well-read lawyer can tell what the law really is upon the simplest question. As matters now stand, it is doubted if an intelligent industrious man can find out in five days, what the duties of a town clerk are. A revision and new compilation are greatly needed. The act to incorporate the State Agricultural College of Wisconsin was passed by the Senate.

In the Assembly a protracted debate took place in regard to the State Prison investigation, and a motion to overhaul the affairs of the Prison since organization, was voted down, and the House refused to concur with the Senate in its proposition for a new select committee of investigation. Judge Hodges, the late Commissioner, is here, and is understood to be anxious that the inquiry into the affairs of the prison, shall go on.

After the passage of a few bills allowing certain towns to raise bounties for volunteers, and some time spent in Committee of the Whole on the general file, the House adjourned.

The Adjutant General has just issued an order for the organization of the Thirty-Sixth Wisconsin Regiment. The field officers are as follows:

Colonel—Frank A. Haskell, of Madison.
Lieutenant Colonel—John A. Savage, Jr., of Milwaukee.
Major—Harvey M. Brown, of Columbus.

All good men and true. A. M. T.

FEBRUARY 12, 1864.

Senator Thorp introduced a resolution this morning instructing the Committee on State Affairs to inquire into the expediency and propriety of the State paying a bounty of $100 to such persons as may hereafter volunteer into the military service of the United States, and be credited to the State to fill the quota of the State under any and all future call or calls of the President of the United States for men; and that said Committee report a bill for that purpose as soon as convenient.

A resolution was introduced by Senator Wescott, and adopted by the Senate, instructing the Committee on Militia to inquire into the expediency and practicability of procuring a change or modification of the law, or order, allowing volunteers to be credited to any town, city or village in this State, and to report by bill or memorial, or otherwise.

Several bills were introduced, and among others one by Mr. Wescott, entitled "A bill for the encouragement of the wool-growing interest of this State," which seems, from its title, to be a bill of some importance. The following bills were passed:

To incorporate the Bohemian Relief Society of Milwaukee city. To amend an act incorporating the Milwaukee Cemetery Association. In relation to Protestant Episcopal Churches in Wisconsin. To incorporate the Watertown Gymnastic Association. For the preservation of fish in Devil's Lake, Sauk county. To amend an act incorporating the village of Two Rivers, Manitowoc county. To amend acts relating to county and county officers, providing for county boards choosing their own chairman at each annual meeting.—To enable the city of Fond du Lac to settle with its bondholders. To amend chapter 222, general laws of 1860, relating to school, university, swamp, and overflowed lands, &c., and providing for their adequate protection.

The State Prison investigation matter was postponed until Tuesday next.

Senator Wheeler, of Fond du Lac, is at home sick with the small pox.

In the Assembly, Mr. Sanborn introduced a resolution directing the Secretary of State to furnish a detailed statement of the number, names and pay of all the clerks and employees about the Capitol and connected with the several State offices.

Mr. BARRON could not see the necessity of putting the Secretary of State to the labor involved in this resolution, inasmuch as the information was contained in his annual report. Mr. SANBORN said that some clerks were paid more and others less than they earned, and he wanted the people to have the facts before them. Mr. BARRON thought it a very small effort to make political capital. He said he supposed the State officers knew what the were about and could regulate the affairs of their offices without legislative interference. After some further remarks by Mr. Sanborn, the resolution was adopted.

A resolution was adopted, ordering of the State Printer 2,500 copies of the law authorizing towns, cities and villages to raise money by tax for the payment of bounties to volunteers. [The democrats are entitled to the credit of a little sharp practice on this occasion. The resolution as originally introduced, provided for the purchase of so many copies of the State Journal which had the law already in type and could have furnished the needed copies in three or four hours; but the copperheads are not especially fond of circulating that paper, so they went in to kill the measure so far as giving any aid or comfort to that sheet is concerned. Some of the Republicans did not see what they were driving at until it was too late. Sanborn Jones & Co. managed the thing very adroitly, and are entitled to some credit. The State printer can thank them for this job.]

The committee on privileges and elections reported in regard to the contested seat in Waukesha county, that it appeared that Mr. Costigan had 43 majority of all the votes cast, and the only question in the case was as to the legality of an extra poll in the town of Menomonee. While there were some informalities in connection with that extra poll, it appeared that the election held there was legal and there was no evidence of fraud in the voting or proceedings there, and hence there was not sufficient reason to oust Mr. Costigan, but as Mr. Cady appeared to have had reasonable ground for contesting the seat, the majority of the committee recommended that he be allowed per diem, mileage and reasonable expenses.

One of the most remarkable blunders of the session was committed by the House this morning in indefinitely postponing, by a vote of 52 to 23, the Senate resolution, amending the constitution so as to increase the number of Judges on the Supreme Bench to five. Mr. Sanborn objected to amending the constitution by piece meal, when the whole of it needed revision by a convention. Mr. George B. Smith said the present Judges were highly respectable gentlemen and good lawyers, and were abundantly able and willing to transact the business of the Court, without adding to their number. The statement of Mr. Smith is incorrect, and in support of the contrary assertion the fact might be cited that it has sometimes taken a twelvemonth to get the opinion of that court after the arguments had been closed, and the reason assigned for such delay, was, that the court was so crowded with business that it was impossible to dispatch it more promptly. I hope the matter will be reconsidered.

Mr. Webb's bill providing for the revision and compilation of the laws of Wisconsin, was defeated on its final passage by the decisive vote of 49 to 30. Last session a similar bill was lost by only one vote.

Changes Wrought by the War.

In "Cudjo's Cave," a war novel by J. T. Trowbridge, well known as a contributor to the Atlantic Monthly, we find the following beautiful paragraph:

"How many a beloved good-for-nothing has gone from our streets and firesides, to re-appear afar off in a vision of glory! The school-fellows know not their comrade; the mother knows not her own son. The stripling whose out-going and in-coming were so familiar to us—impulsive, fun-loving, a little vain, a little selfish, apt to be cross when the supper was not ready, apt to come late and make you cross when the supper was ready and waiting—who ever guessed what nobleness was in him! His country called, and he rose up a patriot. The fatigue of marches, the hardships of camp and bivouac, the hard fare, the injustice that must be submitted to, all the terrible trials of the body's strength and the soul's patient endurance, these he bore with the superb buoyancy of spirit which denotes the hero. Who was it that caught up the colors and rushed forward with them into the thick of the battle, after the fifth man who attempted it had been shot down? Yes, the very same. He fell, covered with wounds and glory.

The rusty and seemingly useless instrument we saw hang so long idle on the walls of society, none dreamed to be a trumpet of sonorous note until the soul came and blew a blast. And what has become of that white-gloved, perfumed and handsome cousin of yours, devoted to his pleasures, weary even of those—to whom life, with all its luxuries, had become a bore? He fell in the trenches at Wagner. He had distinguished himself for his daring, his hardihood, his fiery love of liberty. When the nations alarm beat, his manhood then stood erect; all his past frivolities were no more than dust in the mane of this young lion. The war has proved useful if only in this, that is has developed the latent heroism in our young men, and taught us what is in humanity, in our fellows, in ourselves. Because it has called into action all this generosity and courage, if for no other cause, let us forgive its cruelty, though the chair of the beloved one be vacant, the bed unslept in, and the hand cold that penned the letters in that sacred drawer, which cannot even now be opened without grief."

TRIBULATION.

If always on the thorns my feet must tread,
And heavy clouds hang darkly o'er my head;
If all the sunshine from my life depart,
And cold, gray ashes be upon my heart;
If all my hopes, like swift-winged birds, must fly,
And every flower of promise droop and die;
If always through a mist of gathering tears
My eyes watch sadly for the coming years;
O, Father, when Death's river I've passed o'er,
And my feet stand upon the further shore,
Shall not Thy seal upon my forehead be,
"Perfect through suffering," purified by Thee?

THE NEARNESS OF LIFE AND DEATH.—When we walk near the powerful machinery we know that one single mistep and those mighty engines would tear us to ribbons with their flying wheels, or grind us to powder in their ponderous jaws. So, when we are thundering across the land in the rail-car, and there is nothing but half an inch of iron flange to hold us on the track. So, when we are at sea in a ship, and there is nothing but the thickness of a plank between us and eternity. We imagine then that we see how close we are to the edge of the precipice. But we do not see it. Whether on the sea or on the land the partition that divides us from eternity is something thinner than the oak plank or half an inch iron flange. The machinery of life and death are within us. The tissues that hold these beating powers in their place are often not thicker than a sheet of paper, and if that thin partition should rupture, it would be just the same with us as if a cannon ball had struck us. Death is inseparably bound up with life in every structure of our bodies. Struggle as he would to widen the space, no man can at any time go further from death than the thickness of a sheet of paper.

Christ was the first certain practical teacher of the immortality of the soul. The first certain Teacher; certain through the prophecies which were fulfilled in him; certain through the miracles which he wrought; certain through his own revival after a death through which he had sealed his doctrine. * * The first practical Teacher. For it is one thing to conjecture, to wish, and to believe the immortality of the soul as a philosophic speculation, and quite another to direct the inner life and outward acts by it. And this Christ was, at least, the first to teach. For although the belief that bad actions were to be punished in the future life had been introduced among many nations before the time of Christ, yet they were only such actions as were injurious to civil society, and consequently had also received their punishment in that society. To enforce an inward purity of heart in reference to another life, was reserved for Christ alone.—Lossing.

BELIEVE AND LOVE.—Believe, and you shall love. Believe much, and you shall love much. Labor for strong and deep persuasion of the glorious things which are spoken of Christ, and this will command love. Certainly, did men indeed believe His worth, they would accordingly love Him; for the reason they cannot but love that which they firmly believe to be worthiest of affection. Oh! this mischievous unbelief is that which makes the heart cold and dead towards God. Seek, then, to believe Christ's excellency in himself, and his love to us, and our interest in him, and this will kindle such a fire in the heart as will make it ascend in a sacrifice of love to him.—Jeremy Taylor.

THE UNITY OF THE BIBLE.—The Bible is one revelation, woven together with a wonderous variety of texture and hue; but with a yet more wondrous unity of design and execution. In is a Titanic arch built upward from each side with precious marbles of divers qualities and veinings, from heaven's own quarries, culminating far up on high in glorious symmetry and strength, where Christ, the keystone, locks the massive structure in eternal rest, and crowns it with divinest grace. It cannot be tampered with. It is incapable of reconstruction. It cannot be built down to a smaller model. To attempt this is to tumble it into a mass of ruins.

NOTHING IS FORGOTTEN.—There is no such thing as forgetting, possible to the mind. A thousand accidents may, and will, interpose a veil between our present consciousness and the secret inscriptions of the mind; accidents of the same sort will also rend away their veil; but alike, whether veiled or unveiled, the inscription will remain forever; just as the stars seem to withdraw before the coming light of day; whereas, in fact, we all know that it is a light drawn over as a veil, and that they are waiting to be revealed when the obscuring daylight shall have withdrawn.

Those showers of grace that slide off from the lofty mountains rest on the valleys and make them fruitful. He giveth grace to the lowly. He loves to bestow it where there is most room, to receive it, and most return of ingenuous and entire praises upon the receipt. Such is the humble heart; and truly as much humility gains more grace, so it grows by it.—Leighton.

"And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and gold." The Hebrew reading is, "Abram was very heavy," etc. Riches are a burden. There is a burden of care in getting them, fear in making them, temptation in using them, sorrow in losing them, and a burden of account at last to be given concerning them.—Matthew Henry.

GOOD! BETTER! BEST!

THE

BADGER DRILL!

HERETOFORE KNOWN AS THE JESSUP DRILL!!

AS MADE BY

is now vastly improved, and will hereafter be called the BADGER. The Badger possesses all the good qualities of the old drill, and many valuable improvements.

The feeding principle of the new Drill is the same as the old, but the working arrangement is quite different, and very much improved.

The workmanship is also much better than the old Drill. We will not claim that the Badger is better made than other Drills, but will say that it is made by experienced workmen, under my own supervision, and am willing that it should be compared with the best Drill made.

The frames are made of summer seasoned white ash, from the forests of Indiana. The poles and tolls are dried ash from Jefferson county. The hubs, and other castings, are from the reliable Rock River Iron Works of James Harris & Co. The various sizes of wrought iron are from numerous rolling mills of Pittsburgh.

THE POINTS ARE CAST STEEL,

from the celebrated Sheffield works of Singer, Nimick & Co. The felloes are from the Ohio State Prison, located at Columbus, Ohio. The spokes are of dry white oak, from Northern Wisconsin. The chains are from Wm. Fredericks, Germany. No pains have been spared to obtain the best material—the workmanship will show for itself.

To those who know the old Drill it is only necessary to say that the Badger is like it—only better. To those who are not acquainted with the old Drill, we would say that the Badger Drill is more accurate in its feeding than any other drill introduced.

That it is lighter draft and easier for the team than any Drill yet introduced into this market.

That it will distribute any kind of grain grown in this region. That it will

Plant Corn in Rows or in Hills!

Any distance apart, from three to six feet.

That the Badger is warranted to perform, in a good and workmanlike manner, all that is required of any Drill. If, on trial, it does not perform, it can be returned to the manufacturer, and all damage will be paid to the purchaser.

In consequence of the large advance in cost of all kinds of material, the Badger must be sold at advanced prices over last year.

Prices of the Badger for 1864:

9 Tooth Drill	$75	11 Tooth Drill	$85
10 Tooth Drill	80	12 Tooth Drill	90

Five dollars added for Grass Seeder. Four horse Drills will be made to order on short notice.
Price of 17th tooth Drill and Seeder, $120.

STOCK AND GRAIN FARM FOR SALE.—I offer for sale my farm situate in section 22, 23 and 27, laying between four and five miles south of Janesville on the River road, east side.

Said farm contains about 324 acres of land, about 200 of which are fine, level prairie, the balance comprising oak openings and heavy timber. The farm is in good state of cultivation. A large portion of the land is newly broken. Upwards of 60 acres are now sown to Rye and Winter Wheat, and land is ploughed ready for Spring crops. There are about 50 acres seeded down to Timothy and Clover.

The house is roomy, and the farm buildings all that are required to carry on a large farm conveniently.

With the advantages of wood, water and prairie combined, few farms possess similar advantages. The roads are good, with no interruption to travel either in the deepest snow or muddiest times of the year. Many who are in the habit of driving on the River road between Janesville and Beloit will be familiar with the beauty of the location.

For terms and other particulars apply to me on the premises. 25w1w JOHN GEORGE TODD, Rock.

TRIBULATION.

If always on the thorns my feet must tread,
And heavy clouds hang darkly o'er my head;
If all the sunshine from my life depart,
And cold, gray ashes be upon my heart;
If all my hopes, like swift-winged birds, must fly,
And every flower of promise droop and die;
If always through a mist of gathering tears
My eyes watch sadly for the coming years;
O, Father, when Death's river I've passed o'er,
And my feet stand upon the further shore,
Shall not Thy seal upon my forehead be,
"Perfect through suffering," purified by Thee!

THE NEARNESS OF LIFE AND DEATH.—When we walk near the powerful machinery we know that one single mistep and those mighty engines would tear us to ribbons with their flying wheels, or grind us to powder in their ponderous jaws. So, when we are thundering across the land in the rail-car, and there is nothing but half an inch of iron flange to hold us on the track. So, when we are at sea in a ship, and there is nothing but the thickness of a plank between us and eternity. We imagine then that we see how close we are to the edge of the precipice. But we do not see it. Whether on the sea or on the land the partition that divides us from eternity is something thinner than the oak plank or half an inch iron flange. The machinery of life and death are within us. The tissues that hold these beating powers in their place are often not thicker than a sheet of paper, and if that thin partition should rupture, it would be just the same with us as if a cannon ball had struck us. Death is inseparably bound up with life in every structure of our bodies. Struggle as he would to widen the space, no man can at any time go further from death than the thickness of a sheet of paper.

Christ was the first certain practical teacher of the immortality of the soul. The first certain Teacher; certain through the prophecies which were fulfilled in him; certain through the miracles which he wrought; certain through his own revival after a death through which he had sealed his doctrine. * * The first practical Teacher. For it is one thing to conjecture, to wish, and to believe the immortality of the soul as a philosophic speculation, and quite another to direct the inner life and outward acts by it. And this Christ was, at least, the first to teach. For although the belief that bad actions were to be punished in the future life had been introduced among many nations before the time of Christ, yet they were only such actions as were injurious to civil society, and consequently had also received their punishment in that society. To enforce an inward purity of heart in reference to another life, was reserved for Christ alone.—Lossing.

BELIEVE AND LOVE.—Believe, and you shall love. Believe much, and you shall love much. Labor for strong and deep persuasion of the glorious things which are spoken of Christ, and this will command love. Certanly, did men indeed believe His worth, they would accordingly love Him; for the reason they cannot but love that which they firmly believe to be worthiest of affection. Oh! this mischievous unbelief is that which makes the heart cold and dead towards God. Seek, then, to believe Christ's excellency in himself, and his love to us, and our interest in him, and this will kindle such a fire in the heart as will make it ascend in a sacrifice of love to him.—Jeremy Taylor.

THE UNITY OF THE BIBLE.—The Bible is one revelation, woven together with a wonderous variety of texture and hue; but with a yet more wondrous unity of disign and execution. In is a Titanic arch built upward from each side with precious marbles of divers qualities and veinings, from heaven's own quarries, culminating far up on high in glorious symmetry and strength, where Christ, the keystone, locks the massive structure in eternal rest, and crowns it with divinest grace. It cannot be tampered with. It is incapable of reconstruction. It cannot be built down to a smaller model. To attempt this is to tumble it into a mass of ruins.

NOTHING IS FORGOTTEN.—There is no such thing as forgetting, possible to the mind. A thousand accidents may, and will, interpose a veil between our present consciousness and the secret inscriptions of the mind; accidents of the same sort will also rend away their veil; but alike, whether veiled or unveiled, the inscription will remain forever; just as the stars seem to withdraw before the coming light of day; whereas, in fact, we all know that it is a light drawn over as a veil, and that they are waiting to be revealed when the obscuring daylight shall have withdrawn.

Those showers of grace that slide off from the lofty mountains rest on the valleys and make them fruitful. He giveth grace to the lowly. He loves to bestow it where there is most room, to receive it, and most return of ingenuous and entire praises upon the receipt. Such is the humble heart; and truly as much humility gains more grace, so it grows by it.—Leighton.

"And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and gold." The Hebrew reading is, "Abram was very heavy." etc. Riches are a burden. There is a burden of care in getting them, fear in making them, temptation in using them, sorrow in losing them, and a burden of account at last to be given concerning them.—Matthew Henry.

GOOD! BETTER! BEST!

THE

BADGER DRILL!

HERETOFORE KNOWN AS

THE JESSUP DRILL!!

AS MADE BY

R. J. RICHARDSON,

is now vastly improved, and will hereafter be called the BADGER. The Badger possesses all the good qualities of the old drill, and many valuable improvements.

The feeding principle of the new Drill is the same as the old, but the working arrangement is quite different, and very much improved.

The workmanship is also much better than the old Drill. We will not claim that the Badger is better made than other Drills, but will say that it is made by experienced workmen, under my own supervision, and am willing that it should be compared with the best Drill made.

The frames are made of summer seasoned white ash, from the forests of Indiana. The poles and rolls are dried ash from Jefferson county. The hubs, and other castings, are from the reliable Rock River Iron Works of James Harris & Co. The various sizes of wrought iron are from numerous rolling mills of Pittsbuargh.

THE POINTS ARE CAST STEEL,

from the celebrated Sheffield works of Singer, Nimick & Co. The fellows are from the Ohio State Prison, located at Columbus, Ohio. The spokes are of dry white oak, from Northern Wisconsin. The chains are from Wm. Fredericks, Germany. No pains have been spared to obtain the best material—the workmanship will show for itself.

To those who know the old Drill it is only necessary to say that the Badger is like it—only better. To those who are not acquainted with the old Drill, we would say that the Badger Drill is more accurate in its feeding than any other drill introduced.

That it is lighter draft and easier for the team than any Drill yet introduced into this market.

That it will distribute any kind of grain grown in this region. That it will

Plant Corn in Rows or in Hills!

Any distance apart, from three to six feet.

That the Badger is warranted to perform, in a good and workmanlike manner, all that is required of any Drill. If, on trial, it does not perform, it can be returned to the manufacturer, and all damage will be paid to the purchaser.

In consequence of the large advance in cost of all kinds of material, the Badger must be sold at advanced prices over last year.

Prices of the Badger for 1864:

9 Tooth Drill	$75	11 Tooth Drill	$85
10 Tooth Drill	80	12 Tooth Drill	90

Five dollars added for Grass Seeder. Four horse Drills will be made to order on short notice. Price of 17th tooth Drill and Seeder, $120.

STOCK AND GRAIN FARM FOR SALE.—I offer for sale my farm situate in section 22, 23 and 27, laying between four and five miles south of Janesville on the River road, east side.

Said farm contains about 324 acres of land, about 200 of which are fine, level prairie, the balance comprising oak openings and heavy timber. The farm is in good state of cultivation. A large portion of the land is newly broken. Upwards of 30 acres are now sown to Rye and Winter Wheat, and land is ploughed ready for Spring crops. There are about 50 acres seeded down to Timothy and Clover.

The house is roomy, and the farm buildings all that are required to carry on a large farm conveniently.

With the advantages of wood, water and prairie combined, few farms possess similar advantages. The roads are good, with no interruption to travel either in the deepest snow or muddiest times of the year. Many who are in the habit of driving on the River road between Janesville and Beloit will be familiar with the beauty of the location.

For terms and other particulars apply to me on the premises. 25w1w JOHN GEORGE TODD, Rock.

THE BEST IS ALWAYS THE CHEAPEST!

COG WHEELS!

SELF-ADJUSTING & ADJUSTABLE.

It is the best and only reliable wringer before the people. It is the most durable machine made, and combine more strength of frame, capacity for pressure and power of action than any of the cheap, NO COG wringers in the market

Without cog wheels the whole strain of forcing the cloth through the machine is put upon the lower roll, and the cloth is made to act in the place of cog wheels, to drive the upper roll, causing three times as much strain upon the lower roll as when cog-wheels with our Patent Regulator are used, besides the extra strain upon the cloth. Experience shows that Clothes Wringers without cog-wheels cannot be depended upon.

We have seven sizes, from $5.60 to $30. The ordinary family sizes are No. 1, $10, and No. 2, $7. They have COG WHEELS and are warranted in every particular.

It was pronounced superior to all others at the World's Fair at London, 1862, It took the FIRST PREMIUM at the great Fair of the American Institute, New York City, 1863, where the judges were practical mechanics, and appreciated COG-WHEELS.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufacturers to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

DENTAL FACTORY!

DOCTOR BURRUS

Has taken a set of rooms over McKey's Store, where he will be permanently located and practice every department of

DENTISTRY!

In all its branches. He will not only make teeth to order for his patients, but intends to keep on hand a large assortment of teeth for Dentists. He makes teeth so cheap that none need go without them. Every variety of style, from five to sixty dollars per set, and imitates nature with such precision that they cannot be distinguished from the natural teeth, with one exception, that is, they never ache! He puts no nerves in them!

Teeth Extracted Without Pain.

Dr. Burrus has also just procured a quantity of pure, Hydric Aether, which has been pronounced by all the Dental and Medical Journals, as well as by the ablest of the medical profession, to be the best and safest of all the anesthetic agents yet known for the purpose of extracting teeth. He has a new mode of administering his agent, a new apparatus for the express purpose. It is preferable to and less dangerous, though analagous to the

Nitrous Oxide Gas, (Laughing Gas.)

This gas has been before the public over half a century, and proved to be dangerous and uncertain in its on.

Dr. Tefft's Local Anasthecia.

Dr. Burrus uses this agent for all who desire it. A small piece of cotton wet with this agent put around the neck of the tooth soon remove all sensibility in the parts. It is not dangerous under any circumstances.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE BEST IS ALWAYS THE CHEAPEST!

WARRANTED! WITH

COG WHEELS!

SELF-ADJUSTING & ADJUSTABLE.

It is the best and only reliable wringer before the people. It is the most durable machine made, and combine more strength of frame, capacity for pressure and power of action than any of the cheap, NO COG wringers in the market.

Without cog wheels the whole strain of forcing the cloth through the machine is put upon the lower roll, and the cloth is made to act in the place of cog wheels, to drive the upper roll, causing three times as much strain upon the lower roll as when cog-wheels with our Patent Regulator are used, besides the extra strain upon the cloth. Experience shows that Clothes Wringers without cog-wheels cannot be depended upon.

We have seven sizes, from $5.60 to $30. The ordinary family sizes are No. 1, $10, and No. 2, $7. They have COG WHEELS and are warranted in every particular.

It was pronounced superior to all others at the World's Fair at London, 1862, It took the FIRST PREMIUM at the great Fair of the American Institute, New York City, 1863, where the judges were practical mechanics, and appreciated COG-WHEELS.

It took the FIRST PREMIUM at the

New York State Fair	1862 and 1862
Vermont State Fair	1863
Pennsylvania State Fair	1863
Iowa State Fair	1863
Illinois State Fair	1863
Michigan State Fair	1863

And at County Fairs without number.

It will wring anything from a lace collar to a bed quilt. It will wring clothes out of boiling hot or freezing cold water.

If You Don't Believe it, Try it!

We ask none to buy without a thorough test, for which abundant opportunity will be given to all.

Furnished to families on trial free of expense.

Sold in Rock County by James Holms, Centre; Dann & Bro., Janesville; Henry Cheney, Johnstown; H. S. Gould, Milton, and J. M. Sweet, Union.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.
